

ST BARNABAS CHURCH and CEMETERY UPDATE

The St Barnabas Working Group has continued working on the community's wish for our church and cemetery to be owned and managed by the community, and kept as a place of worship. Our submission has gone to the Anglican Diocese of Tasmania and we await the decision on the 1st December. Our aim is for ownership to be transferred to a suitable community organisation, the format of which is being worked on. It will need to comply with the State Government's proposed amended Burial & Cremations Act for cemetery managers - i.e. must be a body corporate with a succession plan. In the meantime, we need to keep raising funds so we're ready when the moment comes to take back our church and start a new and more vibrant chapter of its long history! Remember pledges are only called upon when required and identifiable donations can be returned on request (over $50) if we're not successful. Events, like the Quiz Night (see page 9) and regular stall at the Market, are also being planned so keep an eye out for them!

See www.stbarnabas.southarm.tas.au for donation details or contact Kim at the South Arm Community Pharmacy. If you can help with fund-raising, event planning, future management of the Church, please contact us via email stbarnabas@southarm.tas.au

HOORAY FOR HOGGYWOOD

The local Piggery production doesn't shy away from much and this year there was plenty of local content and a lot of original content - think Airbnb...ball tampering...Dark MoFo! Last year the production funded heat pumps for classrooms at South Arm Primary, this year the big bucks raised will be combined with the funds raised at the school quiz night to purchase new play equipment (that stuff is expensive!). It's a much loved event in the Arm's winter calendar so don't be shy if a little fun and frivolity take your fancy - there are plenty of ways you can be involved. PHOTO: 2018 cast members hamming it up.

SCHOOL QUIZ NIGHT

The recent School Association Quiz Night was an outstanding success. There was a great crowd—thanks to all those came along. As a school we really value the support. Thanks to that support, and the hard work of all involved in organising the event, it was fantastically successful, raising money and raising spirits AND over $5,500 was raised. In addition to all those who purchased raffle tickets or helped make up a table, our thanks to Tony and Judy for hosting at the RSL, all the many generous prize donors and the masterful Quiz Master, Andy. Finally, for procuring all donations, promoting the event so effectively, putting in all the time to organise in advance and for all their work on the night, a great big thank you to Harriet, Val and Annie. What a great school community!

TWO NEW BOOKS TO HELP TEENS AND YOUNG ADULTS

From local author and experienced therapist, Helen Middleton.

Finding your way in early adulthood has been written to help young adults as they face the question after high school, what now? It aims to help them find a smooth journey into adulthood as our complex and fast moving world can quickly become confusing with new freedoms and responsibilities.

It covers the post-school lull, interpersonal dynamics in the workplace, overcoming stress, overthinking and anxiety. Is he/she the right partner? Thrive with self belief and much more.

Teen Time for teenagers encourages young people to think about what it is they really want out of a situation then draw on the power of that to push through any intruding anxious and unhelpful thoughts. It covers dealing with bullies, friendships that hurt, becoming more assertive, social media and gaming, friends in trouble, starting work, how to deal with a difficult boss, bullying in the workplace, negativity and attitude, resilience, falling in love, controlling your anger, leadership, risk taking, finding your edge, believing in yourself.

Locally they are available through <https://myteentime.com> and online through Amazon, Booktopia and other online sellers (approximately $30 per book including postage). Books $25 for local pickup – to arrange email hmiddleton2018@gmail.com

COMMUNITY SHOUT OUT

We would like to thank the Sandford and Lauderdale volunteer fire fighters for their quick response to a fire on our property recently.

Also, for their professional attitude, and especially, for giving up their time and families to do this great work as volunteers in the local community. Thank you once again.

Andrew and Penelope Wells, Clifton Beach

1800RAPTOR hotline

A new dedicated hotline is up and running in Tasmania to ensure reports of injured birds of prey can be responded to immediately. The 1800RAPTOR Hotline helps to ensure injured birds can get the care they need as soon as possible.

The Raptor and Wildlife Refuge has been working hard for a number of years to successfully rehabilitate birds of prey before they are released back into the wild where they belong.

For an injured bird to have the best chance of survival, let alone rehabilitation, time is critical.

This commitment follows the signing of a Deed of Agreement between the Raptor and Wildlife Refuge and the Department of Primary Industries, Parks, Water and Environment (DPIPWE).

SOUTH ARM RAFT

The sputnik-like mooring has been sensationally decorated by students from South Arm Primary School under the guiding eye of artist Laney Wing. The sea life under the raft is in for a real treat! See picture below.

Plans are underway for the mooring to be sunk in October and everything is still on track for some summer fun on a much improved raft – one that will stay put and not wander up the beach at will like the last one!

Thanks again to all those involved behind the scenes.

ON THE AGENDA WITH SAPRA

Your community organisation

Did you know it's SAPRA's 30th birthday in 2019? A recent tidy up at the Centre revealed some old files and photos which shone an interesting light on the issues that change and those that don't (roads, footpaths etc.). I've spent most of the last 20 years on the SAPRA Committee and had forgotten some of the projects and events we've initiated and run not to mention the array of issues we've dealt with – probably because there's so many!

Find our story on SAPRA's Facebook page or look for the list of achievements at the Centre. We're currently working on the South Arm website where our past, present and future projects will be highlighted so stay tuned!

New Committee members? Three potential new members came to our last meeting, and all made valuable contributions so we hope they formally put their hands up at our forthcoming AGM! (See page 9).

Spring Market – it was a great vibe as we welcomed the new season. At the time of writing the buzzing Kirstie had 50 stalls booked for the Children's Market so hope the weather behaved! (See front page for next markets)

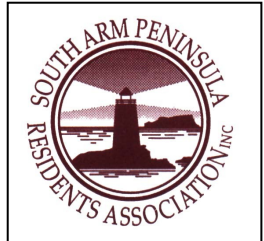

Community Library – speaking of buzzing, this place comes alive with book talk, general chit chat and a lot of laughs. (See hours below) The History Room is looking great and shows off our stories of old and not so old. Thanks always to Maurice Potter for his work.

The Raft is on track to be back in the water for summer with some colour added to the mooring (see page 4).

We are always keen to assist with issues and support projects, whether with practical advice and support or auspicging grants for non-incorporated groups. Please contact me or any of our Committee (see page 2).
