

PENINSULA MARKET BOOM

This issue will bring us in to spring and in September particularly there will be no excuse to stay at home on the weekend with plenty of market fun to be had on the peninsula.

COMMUNITY MARKET—SOUTH ARM COMMUNITY CENTRE

In AUGUST we will be celebrating Children's Book Week! Kids, bring your excess books along for a book swap. Draw your favourite character for us and have some fun with prizes on offer! The SEPTEMBER market will be a "Fly a Kite" so we can have some fun and wave goodbye to winter. It's also Father's day, so come on Dad, let's see you get your kite in the air! Please note that September sees the market time change back to 9am – 1pm. For OCTOBER we're working on babies and blooms and then in NOVEMBER... well, just stay tuned for some more fun. Thanks to Karryn Dargie for some great ideas and making these activities happen! It's on the first Sunday of the month; for all bookings and enquiries call Pam on 6248 9852. See below for more market action in Cremorne.

POTTER'S HILL BUSH RESERVE ACTIVITY PLAN

Over the next few months, Clarence City Council will be developing, using extensive community consultation, the draft Potter's Hill Bush Reserve Activity Plan.

The Reserve is a 2.5 ha bush block located at 96 Fort Direction Road, South Arm. It's a spectacular hill top location features panoramic 360 degree views of the South Arm coastal region and the South Arm hinterland. Local community and interested stakeholders are invited to attend a 'Walk and Talk' to discuss issues of interest and concern with the consultation and Council representatives.

Find all the details as well as key contacts and a map on page 4.

GLENVAR BEACH RAFT [at Opossum Bay]

This summer a familiar feature at Opossum Bay beach will hopefully catch your eye again. A new raft has been built and is ready to be placed on a mooring in the bay. The beach has been without its popular attraction for quite some time after the last raft became dislodged and was damaged during a storm.

HISTORY AND HERITAGE

The South Arm — New Zealand Connection as told by Maurice Potter from his recent travels with wife Pauline

On arrival at Tauranga wharf on the cruise ship Dawn Princess 26th February 2014 we were met by Mr Colin Pettigrew who is a leader of just one community group who have been very active in restoring the history at Omokoroa Point and the land once farmed by Rev. Joseph Tice Gellibrand. Community spirit is strong in Omokoroa and there are many cultural and community groups and activities run by volunteers. After a tour of the Tauranga taking in the views from the highest peaks we could find, we proceeded to Omokoroa Point 17km from the harbour. It is very much like the area of Opossum Bay the only difference being the number of houses along the many small streets with a population around 2000 people. A very large retirement village surrounded by the parklands runs along the foreshore with a golf course and Clubhouse nearby. At the home of Colin & Shirley Pettigrew we met with the other members of their group, while enjoying a lovely lunch, we discussed the history of Gellibrand his wife Selina and Elizabeth which took place back in 1877. Elizabeth married Arthur Crapp in Auckland 28th February 1878; at the time Rev J. T. Gellibrand was very ill so only Selina was able to attend the wedding. On the return trip by steamer to Tauranga, Selina was met by a small sailing craft in the harbour to be returned her to Omokoroa Point. While sailing down the bay the sailing vessel capsized and Selina was drowned, the boatman was picked up by Maori's in a canoe. This was a big blow to Joseph as he had been in poor health for some time. For the next few years Joseph took more time to travel visiting South Arm and also the UK. Arthur Crapp had been a surveyor and member of the Armed Constabulary as well as a veteran of the Maori Wars. He became a friend and advisor of Gellibrand and eventually taking over management of the farm, at a later date Arthur Crapp purchased the farm. Gellibrand was a keen naturalist and consequently Omokoroa Point was planted with many exotic trees and shrubs. The reserve today contains many trees planted by Gellibrand, some of which are outstanding and unusual specimens. Today the reserve is named the Gerald Crapp Historic Reserve the majority of which were planted by Tice Gellibrand and Arthur Crapp in the late 1870 -1900. The street into the reserve is named Gellibrand Place, and Gerald Crapp was the youngest child of the seven children born to Elizabeth and Arthur Crapp. Gellibrand constructed a large Kauri homestead out near the Point and poured money and man power into creating a productive farm. The house was destroyed by fire in 1958; the photo here is from a painting. A new home now stands in its place today. During our visit we met three relatives of the Crapp Family who have helped to keep the historical records and history of Omokoroa. To be continued.

CAT ON THE ROCK – Condor 11 on Blackjack Rock

We're getting some great photos in and even had an actual piece of Condor 11 appear at the July market! Over coming months, the images and stories will be collated and hopefully we'll have an exhibition in October or November, marketing the 20th anniversary of this local event.

Did you know there were over 1,000 people on Goat's Bluff the day the ship came off? We'd love to know how many ice-creams Mr Whippy sold over the nearly five weeks of crowds on the Bluff too!

If you have a story to tell, memorabilia or photos please contact Kerry (0407 875 460 | 6248 9302 | kerry@smsaccounting.com.au). If you'd like to help us go through the information and/or set up the exhibition, please do let us know too!

IT'S WINTER WHALE SEASON

Each year it seems whales get more and more attention in our Southern waters. A sighting is not uncommon but each sighting is unique and seems to be special moment between the whale and few lucky onlookers. The photo below of a humpback just off the shores of South Arm was taken by Jo Malcomson of Blackpaw Photography—aren't we lucky!

ST BARNABAS CHURCH

Lots of good things happen quietly in most churches, and St Barnabas is no exception. After all, Jesus' instructions to us are to 'Love one another', and that is what we try to do. One thing that didn't happen quietly was a Holiday Club held at the Calverton Hall. We were blessed with beautiful weather, and over 20 children enjoyed a range of activities. These included indoor and outdoor games, craft, BBQs, and walking ferrets on leads. The ferrets also navigated a maze the whole length of the hall, constructed by the children, and which caused much excitement. We heard stories about Jesus, learned some new songs, and sent home made rockets flying over the oval.

We now meet together for worship at 4pm on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays, which includes a children's section, and we share a meal afterwards; and then home for a relaxing Sunday evening. For any enquiries or help please ring 6247 9700 or 6239 9244

Michael Granger wishes to pay tribute to helpers who aided the construction of the raft with special mention to Adrian Granger of GA Constructions who had significant input in to the project. There has been much support from the community who have helped out with materials and labour.

Currently the raft fund is short of the total amount needed to complete the project by just $495.

Your help is still needed — a dollar from everyone and we can tick this off!

Contributions can be made to Opossum Bay shop or through SAPRA.

The broad objectives of the reserve activity planning process are to:

- Ensure the Reserve is sustainably managed to preserve and enhance its natural, cultural and social values;
- Identify priority management activities to be undertaken within the Reserve by Council and/or volunteer groups as resources become available; and
- Encourage community engagement through raising awareness of the Reserve's values and encourage participation in activities to minimise threats to these values. Local community and interested stakeholders are invited to attend a 'Walk and Talk' to discuss issues of interest and concern with the consultant and Council representatives.

The "Walk and Talk" is planned for 2:30 pm on Sunday 24 August at entrance off 96 Fort Direction Road.

TANGARA TRAIL

Travelling from Cambridge or Five Mile Beach to South Arm you will notice the little blue, or larger white Tangara Trail signs to guide horse riders, walkers and mountain bikers throughout our wonderful network of rural-residential, bush, hills, coastal trails and reserves. Comprised of a main corridor intersected by many other tracks and loops, the scenic Tangara Trail offers close to 100 kilometres of recreational trails.

The Tangara Trail is recognised as one of the best horse riding, walking and mountain bike trail systems in Australia and is used as a benchmark in other states where new trails are being established.

The trail began in the 1970's when the need for safe horse riding was recognised during land subdivision in the area. A management committee formed in 1988. Since then, walking and mountain biking on the trails increased and in 2004 Tangara Horse Riding Trails Inc. became the multi-user Tangara Recreational Trails Inc. It is very unique as it is the only trail network in Southern Tasmania specifically accommodating equestrian use.

A BIG thank you to the Community Emergency Response Team

I would like to thank the response team members and also the people who instigated this excellent service. Unfortunately I have not retained the names of the two kind ladies who came to my aid as I waited for the ambulance. I was greatly impressed by the professional assistance together with friendly reassurances offered. We are fortunate to have generous people like these in our community who willingly give of their time to aid others.

DEDICATED TO THE DOGS!

DOG SOCIALISING

Every Saturday morning, 8.30am, owners and dogs meet for a walk along South Arm Beach. Dogs are off the lead and it's such a pleasure to see how they mix so well. They learn to socialise with dogs and with people. This is how dogs should be. It's a great social walk for humans too.

New dogs can be a bit over-awed; little Lily, the Jack Russell, hid between her owner's legs at first, but by the end of the walk she was out with the other dogs. Lettie, a poodle from Bellerive, is not quite sure she's a dog, but she does want to join in the fun. This socialising helps stop the biting and fighting that nervous dogs use as a defense.

If, as a human, you're frightened by the thought, perhaps you should come with us too. If you don't like the idea at all, remember we're only there for 90mins, we pick up assiduously after our dogs AND pick up beach litter as well.

LEASH UP AND CONSIDER OTHERS

If you're a dog owner and not involved with dog socialising (above), please consider other people when you've got your dog off leash. There are some in our community who have been traumatised by dogs in the past and are very uncomfortable when dogs come bounding towards them off their lead. It doesn't matter that you think your dog wouldn't hurt a fly, a stranger has no idea what to expect. So please, get Fido on a lead and wave a friendly hello to people you meet when walking your dog and everyone can enjoy the outdoors together.

PS Please obey the dog rules on Arm End and other signed areas thanks!

DOGGY DOO – BUT PLEASE DON'T!

It's a natural thing of course but it stinks, it's unsightly, a horrible mess on your boots and very unhealthy for kids playing on the beach (or anywhere). Please remember that if you own a dog you must clean up after it. There are also fines if you're caught walking away. We are lucky to live in this beautiful place, please let's all keep it that way.

DOGS DAY OUT

Bring your dog along to Rosny Farm for a Dogs Day Out. There are loads of activities for you and your dog to enjoy! 5 October, 11:00am to 3:00pm.

- Transport to and from the airport
- Travel locally, to Hobart or anywhere within the state.

All vehicles are driven by friendly local volunteer drivers and wheelchair accessible vehicles are available in most areas.

SAPRA NEWS – July 2014 Report

The year seems to be flying past with the SAPRA Committee working hard on a number projects for the community. See our articles in this edition on the Community Centre and Community Garden just for starters!

New committee member: at our July meeting Andrew Geddes from Opossum Bay joined the Committee. Welcome aboard Andrew, we look forward to working with you.

Treasurer: like counting the cash and playing with spreadsheets? We'd love to hear from you! SAPRA needs a Treasurer – it's not a big workload but something our President would definitely like to share (or preferably shed!). Please contact us if you can help out.

Clifton intersection: we've received a response from the Infrastructure Minister, Rene Hidding, to our concerns and are now working on our own response. RACT is also on board to help us improve safety. In the meantime though, please remember to take extreme care at this junction, especially in the wet weather. After all, we're each at the wheel so ultimately it's up to us to drive to the conditions.

SAPRA Memberships now due: it costs just $2 per person for you to help us help you! Your Memberships helps us show government at all levels and other organisations that we represent you. There's a Membership form on page 8 in this edition or pick one up at the shops in South Arm or Opossum Bay.

AGM & General Meeting will be held in September or October – keep an eye out for posters at the shops and let any Committee member know if there's an issue you'd like addressed. Give us plenty of notice so we can get our background work done beforehand.

CLARENCE IN WARTIME — South Arm Peninsula

Did you or your family have associations with Clarence during wartime? Or have ancestors that fought in any conflicts from the Boer War to the present day? Have you served in the forces or currently serving?

John Wadsley, a heritage consultant, has been commissioned by Clarence Council to research Clarence in wartime principally for new interpretation panels for Anzac Park in Lindisfarne but also to build a picture of our municipality during these times. This project will seek some of the stories about individual soldiers who served, fought and in some cases made the ultimate sacrifice but it also looks at the impact of war on Clarence over time.

For example

- What industry and economic activity was carried on that supported the war effort during the Great War and Second World War?
- How did mothers, sisters and wives cope with the loss of their menfolk?
- During the Second World War, what was the impact of rationing on families?
- Do you have any stories of the military installations that were in operation during wartime across Clarence?
- What of the Land Army and other organisations that took on important roles during the Second World War?
- And what are the stories of local commemoration and remembrance around Clarence over time?

If you would like to share your stories and memories, contact John (0417 487 289 or 6248 7294, email john@wadsleyplanning.com.au). It would be appreciated if people would contact John before the end of August 2014.

CREMORNE PLAYGROUP

Winter news and kid-sitters wanted

Winter playgroup has had some cosy indoor sessions including an outing to FarOut which got most warm with a few runs up and down the slides. We're all looking forward, however, to the weather warming up.

A number of people often ask about babysitters and there is a bit of an informal list floating around but if you know someone keen to babysit (your older kids, yourself etc) and they are happy to be on a list please let us know (see our details on back page). We'll make something available on the Cremorne webpage (include name, contact details, availability (days and times), experience/approx age, ages happy to sit, other relevant info). We're also always keen to hear of new ideas for playgroup so please feel free to let us know.
